

Call for Submissions to present at the ARI Conference 2019

The 55th Annual ARI Conference will take place at Peppers Craigieburn, NSW Southern from 17th-18th June 2019 under the theme of 'Creating value in Aquatics & Recreation'

A call for submissions to present is now open for the following categories:

- Product innovation
- Building capacity – work force development
- Projects of significance
- Community engagement and social value
- Creating Value in the customer journey

Please complete the session overview details on this form and forward with any necessary documentation to be considered by COB, Friday 14th December 2018.

The submission of a completed proposal form does not in any way guarantee the submitter or presenters a speaking slot on the programme. Furthermore, it is not intended to create a legally binding relationship between the presenters and ARI NSW

Please be advised that any offer to speak at the event will be subject to terms and conditions to be agreed at a later date. Please note that all sessions are peer reviewed by the Programme Planning Committee. Sessions are selected to fit with the annual theme of the conference and the content streams that will be presented each year.

Some presentations may be filmed during the event and a copy of presentations is asked to be available to be published online by the ARI afterwards for Delegates. By submitting a proposal you agree for your presentation to be filmed and published in this way.

Competing interests must be declared on this proposal application otherwise the proposal will not be considered. If your presentation is selected, competing interests must be declared both verbally and on a slide at the beginning of the presentation at the Conference.

Successful presenters will be notified by 31st January 2019

Any changes to speakers after acceptance of a presentation for the conference must be agreed in writing with the conference content manager.

The proposed session will be strictly limited to lasting 45 minutes or less.

Funding for travel or accommodation is not provided to general programme speakers presenting at the event.

If your session is selected, the information below will be printed in the event brochure.
